CANADIAN BRONZE MEDALS.

The especial attention of Collectors is called to the following as-ortment of Medals and Coins relating to Canada—not only on account of its being the largest that has ever been offered at public auction, but because of the extreme rarity of some of the pieces, combined with the fine condition in which almost all the pieces will be found.

SIZE

4.00	611	Cardinal Richelieu. Bust of Richelieu. Rev. A Globe encircled by a belt within a band, with 7 stars on face. "Mens sidera volvit," 1631. Rare and very fine	34
2.75	612	De Levi. Bust, with Latin inscription. Rev. Arms surmounted by a Ducal Crown, with inscription. 1658. Rare and very fine	34
7.50	613	Jean Varin. Intendant General. Bust, with Latin inscription. Rev. Three figures representing the Arts, with inscription. 1684. Rare and very fine	33

The foregoing Medals were struck at Paris, and are extremely interesting in connection with the early history of Canada.

5.50	614	Kebeca Liberata. Bust of Louis XIV. Rev. France surrounded by trophies, a beaver at her feet. "Francia in novo orbe victrix." 1690. Rare and fine	26
------	-----	---	----

LOUISBURG MEDALS.

3.00	615	Laureated Bust of George II. Rev. Arms, centre fleur de lis reversed. "Perfidia eversa," surrounded by the names of commanders with their victories. 1759. Brass. Good	26
------	-----	--	----

3.00	616	Obv. same as last. Rev. Britannia in chariot drawn by a lion, supported by Liberty and Justice. "Fœdus Invictum." 1758. Brass . Good	26
2.75	617	Obv. same as last. "1758." Rev. Same as the last but one "1759." Brass . Condition not quite as good, but the rarest of the series	26

WILLIAM I, 1066 to 1087.

- 2.00 725 Penny. Pillelm Rex. Rex Cross with Paxs in the angles. A beautiful uncirculated impression, struck in London. Rare in this condition
- 85 726 Edward III. 1327 to 1377. Half Groat. Rev. Civitas London. Fair
- 80 727 Edward IV. 1461 to 1483. Groat. Rev. Civitas Bristol. Very good
- 60 728 ——— Half Penny, very small. Fine and scarce.
- 1.10 729 Henry VIII. 1509 to 1547. ~~Six Pence~~. Full face. Groat
The only one I remember to have seen of which the legend on both sides was legible. This is really, for the period, in excellent condition, and is extremely rare.
- 75 730 ——— Groat. A fine impression and scarce

- 5.50 731 Edward VI. 1547 to 1553. Crown. The King on horseback. Date 1551. The first English Crown. In fine condition for the period. Scarce
- 80 c 732 ——— Shilling. Front face. Excellent impression
- 2.25 733 Philip and Mary Shilling. 1554. A fair impression, but has come in contact with something that has turned part of it black. Rare
- 1.00 734 ——— Sixpence. Heads facing. Date 1557. Struck for Ireland. See Simon on Irish Coins, Plate 5, No. 5. The best I ever met with, and exceedingly rare in this condition
- 80 735 Elizabeth. 1558 to 1603. Shilling, in fair condition
- 60 736 ——— Sixpence. 1562. In very fine condition

- 15 738 ——— Sixpence. Small Bust. Struck for Ireland. Fair only, but very rare
- 2.75 739 James I. 1603 to 1625. Crown. A little rubbed, but fair for the period
- 30 740 ——— Shilling. Head to right. Fair
- 50 741 ——— 1624. Sixpence. Very fine and scarce
- 25 742 ——— Three Pence. Ob. Rose, Crowned. Rev. Thistle, Crowned. Fine
- 17 743 ——— Two Pence and Penny. Both Crown obverse, and Thistle reverse. Very fine and scarce.
- 33.00 744 Charles I. 1625 to 1649. Twenty Shillings, or Pound Piece. Ob. King on horseback. War implements under the horse's feet. A Plume of feathers behind the King, and is also the M. M., or Mint Mark. Rev. "Exurgat Deus dissipentur inimici." Three plumes of feathers, and the numerals XX. Under this, in two straight lines, "Relig prot. Leg Ang liber par." 1642. Exceedingly scarce
- This is a variety from those offered either in the Cohen or Jewett sales, and finer than any I have known to be offered for many years.
- 4.75 745 ——— 1642. Ten Shilling Piece. Same type as the preceding Pound piece, but been more circulated. Rare
- 3.75 746 ——— 1644. A beautiful Electrotpe copy of the extremely rare Oxford Crown, of which I am under the belief that the only original specimen known is in the British Museum. King on a fine horse; in the distance, the City of Oxford. Rev. Three Plumes and V. The inscription, as in the two preceding pieces, is ornamented instead of straight lines. The date, 1644, in peculiar figures. Underneath, Oxon.

- 1.00 747 Charles I. Half Crown. Underneath the horse is "Eboro."
Rev. "Christo Auspice Regno." A rare type, but a good deal worn, but all legible
- 40 748 ——— Shilling. Head to left. XII behind the bust. Fine
